I am from Beijing, China. My hometown is Beijing. It is the capital of China and is in the north part of the country. Beijing is not only an economic, political and cultural center in China; it is also a famous historic world city. My family has been there for many years. In the old days, the city was not modern and big. But it has changed a lot recently. I like fall in Beijing. The weather is very nice. I don’t like winter over there. The weather is much colder than it is in New York. Now I am living in New York but I never forget Beijing, my hometown.
My name is Jia Rong Mei. I am from Taishan, China. It is a big city. It is a beautiful city. The city has other names. Many people call it Volleyball Town and Overseas Chinese Hometown. In October, people come here from other cities. They eat many foods. The popular foods are seafood and beef. On September 9th on the Lunar calendar many people come to my small town. They come to eat beef.

I was born in Taishan. The city’s weather is very beautiful. It never snows there. The city has many special local products. The food products are very delicious. I left my hometown one year ago. I miss my hometown.
I’m from Shenzhen, Guangdong. Shenzhen is located in the southern part of Guangdong. It’s one of the most populous cities in China. It neighbors Hong Kong, so the economic growth is faster than other cities in Guangdong. Many people travel to Shenzhen. It’s a beautiful beach city and a shopping city. It’s very busy. You can find different food in Shenzhen. I like my hometown’s food more than New York’s food, because my hometown’s food is fresher. I like my hometown.

My hometown is Wuhan City in China.

Wuhan is the capital of Hubei province. It is the most populous city in central China. It has a population of 11 million people, and lies at the intersection of the middle reaches of the Yangtze and Han rivers. The Yangtze is the third-longest river in the world, and the Han River is its largest tributary. Because of this, Wuhan is sometimes called River City.

There are a great number of lakes and ponds around the city, so it is also called the City of a Hundred Lakes sometimes.

Wuhan is also a major transportation hub in China. It has dozens of subways, railways, roads, highways and airlines.

I am from Guangzhou, Guangdong (Canton), China. Canton is a province in the south of China. Guangzhou is the capital of Canton and it is near Hong Kong and Macau, but it has no coast or beach. Guangzhou is the third largest city in China. There are about 14 million people and the number is increasing every day. People in Guangzhou speak Cantonese and Mandarin.

Guangzhou is a very beautiful city. The Five Goats Statue is the symbol of Guangzhou. There are only a few hills in the city and most of the area is fields. Guangzhou has a big river that we call Pearl River, which gives us the drinking water we need. Guangzhou has never had an earthquake or hurricane. It is a very safe city. Guangzhou has four distinct seasons. Summer is longer than winter, and it’s very hot. It doesn’t snow in the winter.
Guangzhou has three big shopping areas: Beijing Road, ShangXiaJiu Road and East Tianhe business zone. Lots of tourists like to visit these shopping places.

The most famous thing in Guangzhou is the cooking culture. Guangzhou has a lot of restaurants with different kinds of food and they are open from 7 am to 12 am every day. Some of them stay open all night because many people like to have a midnight snack. Most of the Guangzhou citizens like Cantonese cuisine because it is very delicious and easy to make. Cantonese people usually have tea and refreshments (we call that Dianxing) in the morning at a restaurant. Every time you go to a restaurant for breakfast, you will see it is full and you need to wait for a seat.

Hua Jiang

I’m from China. I’m from an ancient, beautiful country. There are a lot of people and they use chopsticks, like me. Civilization in my country began five thousand years ago. The Great Wall of China is famous in my country. I was born in the south of China, Fu Jiang, China. It’s a small town but it is a very beautiful place which is surrounded by water. In the town some people catch a seafood for living. Some people own their own businesses. Some people live abroad.

The best thing I remember about my childhood was every Chinese New Year. Chinese New Year is our traditional holiday. We celebrated by receiving red money bags, wearing new clothes lighting fireworks and eating lots of food. It was an interesting.
